Verse

lick their fur, me-ow and purr, and when they come back, you won-der where they were. They like to play and they sleep all day. A window sill is where they like to lay. Oh, don't-dha think a cat is just like that? Don't-dha think a cat's like that?

Don't-dha think a cat is just like that? Don't-dha think a cat's like that?

Additional verses:

2. They like to stretch and they like to scratch,
and little mice and birds are what they like to catch.
They're clean and neat and they love to eat,
and they're quick and quiet upon their feet.

3. They may be small and they may be fat
but when they sing it's cool, 'specially when they scat.
(Spoken): Scat, cat! Hey, that was fun, feline!
A real pretty ditty, kitty!
