

Kiss A Cow

CHORUS:

C G C G C G F G D7

Kiss a cow. Kiss a cow. Kiss a cow, kiss a cow, kiss a

G C G C G C G F G D7

cow. Kiss a cow. Kiss a cow. Kiss a cow, kiss a cow, kiss a to Coda for last verse

G VERSE: D7

cow. 1. Well, you can climb an oak tree and try to kiss a mon-key, but mon-keys are too quick to try to kiss. Yeah! You could e-ven, may-be, try to kiss a tur-key, but tur-keys could get scared and you could miss. So,

G D7

G

Coda D7 C D7

4. Cows are kiss-a-ble; cows aren't miss-a-ble. Cows are per-mis-si-ble to

G

- kiss, I guess. (Kiss, kiss. Moo-oo!)

2 Take a cover so it can't see
And try to kiss a donkey
But come too close behind and it can kick.
If you care to try a killer
Kiss a caterpillar
But keep your cool 'cause it could make you sick.

CHORUS

3 You could try a nothin'
And take a kiss o' pumpkin
But pumpkins are no fun to kiss at all.
You could kiss a black crow
But every kiss you must throw
'Cause you could not come close without a call.

CHORUS

4 Cows are kissable.
Cows aren't missable.
Cows are permissible to kiss, I guess.
(Kiss, kiss. Moo-oo!)
